

Decanter World Wine Awards 2021

The results from the 18th edition of the Decanter World Wine Awards have been released. The world's largest wine competition saw its biggest year to date, with 18,094 wines tasted from 56 countries.

The Meridian producers have secured 1 Best in Show, 2 Platinum and 13 Gold medals. We are proud to announce that the below wines in our portfolio have received these medals:

Best in Show:

Cederberg Five Generations Cabernet Sauvignon 2018
Awarded with 97 Points

Platinum Medals:

Delaire Graff Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2018
Awarded with 97 Points

Warwick Trilogy 2018
Awarded with 97 Points

Gold Medals:

Cederberg Shiraz 2018
Awarded with 96 Points

De Wetshof Bateleur Chardonnay 2018
Awarded with 96 Points

De Wetshof Lesca (Finesse) Chardonnay 2020
Awarded with 95 Points

Diemersdal The Journal Cabernet Sauvignon 2019
Awarded with 95 Points

Gold Medals (continued):

Diemersdal The Journal Pinotage 2019
Awarded with 96 Points

Diemersdal The Journal Sauvignon Blanc 2020
Awarded with 95 Points

Ghost Corner Sauvignon Blanc 2020
Awarded with 95 Points

Klein Constantia Vin de Constance 2017
Awarded with 96 Points

Paul Cluver Seven Flags Chardonnay 2018
Awarded with 96 Points

Saronsberg Full Circle 2019
Awarded with 95 Points

Saronsberg Seismic 2018
Awarded with 96 Points

Tokara Reserve Director's Reserve 2018
Awarded with 95 Points

Tokara Reserve Collection Cabernet Sauvignon 2018
Awarded with 96 Points

Decanter

View All Results