

LONGAVÍ

DE LOS ANDES · CHILE

GLUP CHENIN BLANC 2020

Longaví means 'snake's head' and is also the name of a volcanic mountain at the foot of the Andes Mountains that Julio finds particularly inspiring. The Longaví range is made by two legends of different continents, Julio Bouchon from Chile and David Nieuwoudt from South Africa. The Chenin Blanc vineyards are situated in the Maule Valley, south of Santiago.

----- VINEYARDS -----

LONGAVÍ VALLE DE COLCHAGUA, CHILE

Chenin Blanc

Julio Bouchon
Productor Chileno

This wine is a collaboration between Chilean producer Julio Bouchon and South African winemaker David Nieuwoudt. Longaví, meaning 'snake's head', draws on the spirit and legends of two continents. The vine wreath denoting the ouroboros, an ancient African symbol, represents nature's eternal cycle of renewal. The sacred condor soaring high above the Andes - man's messenger to the gods - represents the winemaker's freedom and search for perfection. Longaví wines will certainly please both man and the gods! www.longaviwines.com
